

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS (ÁSZF)

Please read the below General Terms and Conditions carefully in which Remedicon Kft., advises people registering for the Conference (hereafter: Participant) the general terms and conditions of the contract concluded between the two parties.

BY CLICKING ON THE 'I HAVE PERUSED, UNDERSTOOD AND ACCEPT' THE GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITONS BUTTON, PARTICIPANT STATES THAT THEY ACCEPT THE BELOW CONTRACTUAL CONDITIONS.

1. Contract Concluded between Remedicon and Participant

1. The contract between Remedicon and Participant enters into force on voluntary registration of Participant and their acceptance of the General Terms and Conditions and the contract is considered as an electronic written contract. The application sends a confirmation enlisting the most important features of the conference to the e-mail address shared by Participant. The confirmation is recorded and stored. No other archiving will be undertaken. Language of the confirmation is English .
2. As per the contract concluded between Remedicon and Participant, Remedicon delivers Participant the services related to the conference indicated by Participant and Participant pays the fee for the services delivered (registration fee, accommodation etc.) specified on the homepage of the conference.
3. Content of the services delivered by Remedicon on the conferences is detailed in the information featuring on the homepages of the conference of which services Participant may voluntarily choose the ones they need with help of the application. The homepage of the conference also includes the conditions for termination; you are kindly requested to read them carefully. Let us call your attention to the fact that the services ordered through the application, their consideration as well as the most important conditions found on the homepage of the conference (e.g., conditions for termination), further, the order placed by Participant and its confirmation make part of the present General Terms and Conditions and are thus part of the electronic contract too.
4. REMEDICON makes use of subcontractors for delivering its services. Its services may be inclusive of mediated services. Mediated services are shown on the final invoice.
5. Payment can be effected by credit/debit card payment through the internet. Wire transfer or eventual payment in cash on premises of the conference is also possible. After clicking on the package of services, the application generates an information on basis of which payment can be effected. Items paid are included in the pro forma invoice. Once paid, Remedicon establishes a prepayment invoice to Participant that is considered a document subject to strict accounting. The final invoice of Participant is handed over to them during the conference, unless Participant orders it otherwise. Such final invoice shall always include the measure of mediated services used.
6. Participant is entitled to cancelling or terminating the contract as per the cancellation/termination clauses featuring on the homepage of the conference.
7. The contract concluded between REMEDICON and Participant as per the above comes into being for a definite period of time, up to the point of delivering the service/consideration specified in the present contract (end of the conference). Contracting parties may amend the contract by mutual consent in writing (e-mail and its confirmation) at any time.

8. As contracted by the professional organizers, in order to increase the awareness of the general public re the conference and the profession at large, REMEDICON prepares video and voice recordings or photos at the conference or has such recordings or photos prepared by subcontractors and makes such recordings or photos available via electronic means. By accepting the General Terms and Conditions, Participant gives their consent to making video and voice recordings or photos not infringing upon their rights to privacy and to making such recordings or photos public with the exclusive purpose of making the conference more popular and known. Should Participant not want to have pictures made of them, they may note it during registration. REMEDICON will make its best to honour such requests. In spite of all such measures, it is still possible that a recording or photo is made public - in such cases, on a request sent to organizers by e-mail, REMEDICON will immediately remove them.
9. REMEDICON may terminate the contract if Participant does not honour their contractual obligations even after notice and setting of a supplementing deadline of if they seriously breach an important condition of the contract.
10. Cases of faulty service delivery are otherwise governed by precepts of the Civil Code of Hungary (with special respect to the fact that REMEDICON is primarily obliged to correct delivery, whereas Participant is obliged to immediately report such fault to REMEDICON on premises of the conference). Remedicon, will only assume liability for damages occurring due to causes attributable to it and proven and the maximum amount of compensation shall be the participation fee announced for the participants of the conference.
23. Matters not regulated in individual contracts between parties shall be governed by the present General Terms and Conditions. REMEDICON did not subject itself to any code of conduct.
24. Matters not regulated in the present contract shall be governed by Hungarian law, primarily by the Civil Code and other Hungarian legal regulations in effect. In case of a legal dispute, the case shall be heard by the Hungarian court having jurisdiction and competence on basis of the general rules of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Dated at Budapest, on 1 November 2015

Data of REMEDICON:

Company name: Remedicon Kft.

Registration Nr : 01-09-872599

Tax Nr: 13776819-2-41

Headquarters: 16 Ganz utca, 1026 Budapest, Hungary

Phone: +36 1 225 0188

email: info@remedicon.hu